More information about the Retreat Recordings:

Anchoring us in awareness of the breath and everyday experience, Pir Zia uses breath and such emotions as gratitude for the starting point to reach into the consciousness of Great Beings and higher levels of consciousness. His genius is in combining simple terms and common experience with the most majestic concepts. The two retreats were each a distinct jewel in their own right. Following the inspiration of the moment, Pir Zia took us along on the same journey, taking slightly different routes. At Shambhala, with somewhat more emphasis given to the lataif, he reached heights of poetic expression. In the case of the Abode retreat, he led us through more group practices. On both retreats he succeeds admirably in carrying us along with him in his inner experience. Rising through the lataif and the planes of consciousness, he guides us on a journey culminating in the experience of Divine Consciousness.

Through long association and close attunement with both Pir Vilayat and Pir Zia, Aziza Scott embodies the strengths of each and synthesizes them into a seamless flow. Highly recommended for both beginners and advanced mureeds.

Please note the sound on the Shambhala recordings vary greatly. At times wind and other noises are quite loud and may be distracting, however, Pir Zia can always be understood. Audio quality from the Abode Retreat is excellent.

THANK-YOU!
